

LIBRARY RESEARCH PAPER

- This paper should be at least 2 pages long and should discuss the work of one of the artists from the THE ALFOND COLLECTION OF CONTEMPORARY ART.
- After selecting the artist you will write on, you will need to research their work using both Internet and library resources.
- You must supplement any Internet research with at least two articles found via the Olin Library on-line databases
- Papers should be used to reflect upon the artist's work and provide description, analysis, interpretation, and evaluation of the chosen artist and artwork.
- To understand an artist's concept and content you will have to read their artist statement and other writings about their work in addition to looking at their work.
- Visit the Writing Center with a draft

Guidelines

After selecting the artist you will write on, you will need to research their work using both Internet and library resources. You must supplement any Internet research with at least two articles that includes the artist's work using the Olin library online database system. When possible, please reference an article devoted entirely to the artist you are researching or devoted to an exhibition that includes the artist.

These papers are intended to introduce you to new work as well as to assist you in developing consistent and thorough research methods. These papers are not meant to be biographical exercises; rather they should be used to reflect upon the artist's work and should include YOUR reactions –either positive or negative. Papers should include a discussion of such things as the underlying concepts, the artist's process and techniques and formal concerns.

Structure of paper

THESIS-What is the main point you will make about this artwork/artist's expression? Remember to introduce the artist and include a summation of the primary concerns and methodologies of their work (i.e., "he/she is an artist who creates paintings addressing aesthetics and perception...")

DESCRIPTION- Describe the compositional structures of the artwork using the formal elements and organizational principles of art. Describe what the work looks like, materials used, design elements – color, shape, pattern, texture, what are the artist's process and techniques? How does the artist's use of these elements/principles support your thesis?

INTERPRETATION- What overarching message do you see in this piece or the artist's work as a whole? What appropriate source(s) can you reference which support your ideas?

EVALUATION- Your conclusion should include some sort of personal response to the work, such as whether you feel the work is successful or not, and why.
